INTEREST GROWS IN EFFORT TO EDUCATE MASON COUNTIANS

Mason County Moonlight Schools Will Open on October 6th and Effort Will Be Made to Enlist Every Grown-up in County Who Cannot Read or Write.

"One Hundred Per Cent Attendance—Everybody reading and writing".—That's the slogan of the Mason County Illiteracy Drive which is progressing very successfully under the leadership of Mrs. James B. Ross, of this city County Illiteracy Agent.

Every school teacher in the county has agreed to conduct during this year a Moonlight School in their district for the benefit of the grown-ups in that community who can neither read or write. These schools will be opened on the evening of October 6th and plans are now rapidly taking form for the conducting of these schools.

Interest is keen all over Mason county. Mass meetings were held Thursday evening at Rectorville and Plumville. There were large audiences at both places and the people seemed very anxious to attend the Moonlight School and acquire the ability to read and write before the 1920 census is taken. There are at present many grown illiterates in Mason county and a desperate effort will be made to reduce this number considerably if it is not entirely wiped out.

Mrs. Ross, the county illiteracy agent, hopes to have every school district in Mason county thoroughly organized and ready to begin real work by the date set for the opening of the Moonlight School season.

LEDGER TO GIVE FANS WORLD SERIES DOPE

The engineer backed his train to Miamioua and detoured to reach Cincinnati. Many passengers were not awakened by the sudden stopping of the train.

Edward Newhouse, farmer, awakened by a red glare in his bedroom window, saw 150 feet of the trestle blazing. He telephoned the fire department.

A large cistern was used to pump water, but it went dry. George Hoffman, chief of the Cheviot department, took his auto pumper to Muddy Creek to obtain water.

It is understood that the Southern Ohio district Game Warden, who made a raid a few days ago on fishermen's supplies found at the homes of several Aberdeen people, will be required by the courts to return the equipment which he carried away when he made these raids. It develops that these fishermen had Kentucky fishing licenses which gave them permission to fish in the Ohio river and that these nets and seines were being used in the river only.

Last C. & O. Train Is Flagged Just In Time to Prevent Its Crashing Onto Burning Bridge Near Cincinnati.

By a few minutes' time a C. & O. of Indiana R. R. passenger train was saved from plunging 40 feet with its sleeping passengers, early Friday, when a trestle spanning a gully between Bridgeton and Schwartz's Woods, west of Westwood near Cincinnati, was destroyed partly by fire. While volunteers and Cheviot and Cincinnati firemen were fighting the fire, some one remembered the train was due. A fireman with a lantern ran along the track and flagged the train as it came in sight.

GETS BEANS FROM JAPAN

So very scarce is the supply of dried beans in this country that the M. C. Russell Company, local wholesale grocers, had to seek a foreign market to meet the demands of their trade and this firm has just received notice of the receipt in Seattle, Wash., of a shipment of 600 bags of White Navy beans grown in Japan. The beans were shipped to the local firm from Seattle on September 3 and will be several weeks in arriving here.

HUSBAND ASSISTS IN SEARCH FOR MISSING GIRL IN BALTIMORE

Miss Louise Fox Had Been Secretly Married Last April It Has Just Been Learned—Officers Are Yet Unable to Unravel Deep Mystery of Her Disappearance.

Although officers have turned over every possible clue to the mysterious disappearance of Miss Louise Fox in Baltimore on last Saturday evening, they have as yet been unable to find any clue that would lead them to solve this, the deepest mystery that has faced these officers in many years.

The case took a most peculiar turn, to Maysville friends, on Thursday evening when a news dispatch in a Cincinnati newspaper told of the young lady's secret marriage on April 13 last to Mr. George Ervin Bushfield, a student in Columbia University, New York. The husband is now in Baltimore assisting in the search of officers and relatives for the missing girl.

Mr. Fred Hechinger, local clothing merchant, uncle of the missing girl, who is now in Baltimore assisting in the search, telephoned his family here this morning that there were no new developments in the case and that he was leaving Baltimore today to return to Maysville being unable to accomplish anything in the case there.

The theory that the young woman was kidnapped still seems to be the one to which the officials are holding. Although it is reported that the young lady had one thousand dollars in Liberty Bonds on her person and several valuable jewels, it is hardly thought that she was taken up by robbers as she wore neither hat or coat and carried no purse in her hand. It is still thought that her kidnappers will be heard from in a short time.

PREACHING AT BAPTIST CHURCH ON THURSDAY

On next Thursday evening Rev. J. A. Davis, pastor of the Two Lick Baptist Church, will preach at the First Baptist Church, this city and it is hoped that the entire membership will attend. Rev. "Dozens of once prosperous

"But the people have not lost their courage," Brown said. "All they want is money to work with and the city will be rehabilitated quickly. Plans for a sea wall, such as saved Galveston from the terrors of Sunday's storm already are under way."

In selecting the new election officers yesterday, the Election Commissioners endeavored to select men who would be certain to serve. For the past two years on election day there has been much confusion when appointed election officers fail to report for duty. UNCLE TED'S BED-TIME STORIES

Paid In Full!

"Children," said Uncle Ted, "Now that you have both started another school year I want to tell you about something that may be brought up in some of your classes. Do you know what the United States will receive for its share in winning the war with Germany?"

"I don't know for sure," spoke up Jack, "but yesterday one of the boys said other countries that sent soldiers to fight Germany will get lots of land and money from Germany."

"Well, you see it is this way," continued Uncle Ted. "After the war was over each one of the countries that had been fighting Germany sent some of their big men to Paris where for several months they met, talked and decided what each country should get. It was decided that little Belgium should be completely restored by Germany and also that Germany should pay back all the money that Belgium had to borrow from other countries during the war. Great Britain and France, according to the treaty made by these men at Paris and later signed by the German representatives, will receive more land. England, Japan, China and others will have a lot more than they had before the war, either in land or money. Now while the United States did not enter the war just because we wanted more land we all thought that when the final arrangement had been made we might get something to repay part of our losses and the money we spent. We want to the rescue of France and England at a time in the war when it looked very much like Germany might win. Our whole idea was to help to the limit and bring the war to an end as quickly as possible."

"Doesn't the United States get anything," asked Ruth "after all our soldiers did?"

"I'm coming to that in a minute," was Uncle Ted's reply. "When the men from the several countries went to Paris, President Wilson, as you know, sent himself to represent the United States. He had one idea and that was to get all the other men to help him form the world club or league of nations. From that time until today, when he is again away from his work in Washington trying to get the people to believe in this club, he has nearly every hour of his time on this matter, and saying he believes it more important than our own government. This meant that Uncle Ted's quick reply. "It would be better to have a clear record from this war so far as getting land is concerned than to have to take such a piece of land as the Island of Yap, especially if it is supposed to pay for the loss of American lives on the Lusitania."

"Who does Yap belong to now?" asked Jack with a frown.

"It belongs to Germany before the war but it was captured by Australian troops in 1914," was Uncle Ted's answer.

"Let them keep it then," said Jack. "If the President couldn't look after the United States better than that at Paris, then I think we ought to all be too proud to accept it."

GIVES MUCH CREDIT TO AMERICAN PRESS

Credit For Staying Hand of Strikers Is Given to Press and Public Men.

Washington, September 19. — The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement from its Washington Headquarters:

"Short sighted indeed are those who accord to President Wilson credit for staying the ruthless hand of destruction raised over the nation by the four brotherhoods. While it is true that in his reply to the shopmen he uttered a warning against interference with continuation of productive activity, his words were but the echo and repetition of words of warning that had sprung from the lips of public men everywhere and that had been printed on the editorial pages of papers in all parts of the country, while Wilson was still maintaining a sphinx-like silence. If the country had not first expressed in unmistakable terms its uncompromising denunciation of the proposals, demands and threats of the railroad employees, what reason is there to believe that the President would not have surrendered to threats of force just as he did in 1916? What this country needs today is courageous leadership did not come from the White House. It came from the Halls of Congress and from the editorial sanctum of the Fourth Estate."

CAMPAIGN OPENS

IN LEWIS COUNTY

The Vanceburg Sun says: Monday, Judge Ed C. O'Rear opened the Republican campaign here in a well-tempered address. He dealt with state issues and that's what this campaign is for, the settlement of whether we are to have our state affairs conducted in the interests of the people or for the bosses. The speaker was accorded a splendid hearing by an audience that taxed the capacity of the court room. The mark of 1,425 Republican majority in Lewis county was hung up to be attained at the November election and the sentiment of the audience was that we will do it.

Mr. James L. Wallace of Irvine, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, was present and was well received.

KENTUCKY LAND IS SOLD

Frankfort, Ky., September 19.—That 55,000 acres of land in Perry county sold for $1,000 is the report of William Worthington, of Lexington, Commissioner for the Federal Court here. The land was sold to satisfy the judgment in the case of the Goodrich Lockhart Company against Oscar A. Sears, Walter S. Harkins and Joseph D. Harkins. It was appraised at $3,000, but went to S. M. Boggs for one-third of its appraised value.

Mr. Robert L. Hoeftlich, Market street merchant, was in Cincinnati yesterday on business.

MASON COUNTY FARM BUREAU SHOWS RAPID GROWTH--DOWNING

Chairman John R. Downing, of Mason County Farm Bureau, Makes Statement in Regard to Growth of Organization.

Only a short time ago the progressive farmers of Mason county decided that they should be organized for betterment of conditions on their farms and for their benefit in a business way. The state agricultural experts advised the organization of a Farm Bureau recommending this form of organization above any other kind of organization suggested for farmers.

At the first meeting a goodly number of charter members were procured and since that time members have been added almost daily. In speaking of the Bureau and its rapid growth, Mr. John R. Downing, progressive Mason county farmer, who is temporary chairman of the bureau, today said:

"The Farm Bureau which was projected a short time ago has surprised its most ardent supporters by its steady increase in membership, although no campaign has been conducted. Except for one-half day spent in the Helena neighborhood no teams have been out, yet the membership today stands above one hundred. On account of the tobacco season, it was thought best to wait until later to make the campaign, when all of the farmers in Mason county will be offered the opportunity to join. In order to make definite plans for the campaign, it has been decided to hold it the week beginning September 29, and during the week every interested farmer will be given the chance to assist in submitting the proposition to his neighbors.

"The membership now enrolled is well scattered over the county, over 75 per cent. of the precincts being represented."

HEAVY WINDS DO MUCH DAMAGE

Heavy winds today did considerable damage throughout Maysville and Mason county. The large sign erected by the Growers Warehouse Company at Second and Poplar streets was blown down and reports from the country are to the effect that many trees were torn down by the winds.

Great Campaign to Revive River Trade Is Being Planned—Movies Will Be Used.

New York, September 19.—Through the chambers of commerce of some of the important cities along America's waterways, a national campaign is under way to develop the river cities and open the doors to increased trade for the United States. Ultimately it is hoped to restore the Mississippi to her old-time glory through the revival of the steamboat trade. Statistics show that at the present time it is cheaper to ship goods abroad from all points west of Chicago by the waterways route to New Orleans than by way of New York. It is expected that the campaign will result in steps to establish an airplane mail and express service in the valley region.

It is planned to carry on an educational campaign through the newspapers and the motion picture screen. One important production will be a feature picture based on a story by Booth Tarkington called "The Great American." In this story Mr. Tarkington tells how two American war heroes are induced to abandon their dreams of conquering the big city and remain home to bring the Mississippi back to life.

"The Mississippi is the heart of America, the life-blood of the Valley of Democracy," is their impassioned plea for the money required to buy the ships with which they eventually restore to the Father of Waters the glory of bygone years. The story pictures the river with steel steamboats and hydro-airplanes busily plying their trade as the inhabitants of the river cities throng the bustling wharves.

Many new members to AMERICAN LEGION OBTAINED

Although No Special Campaign Effort Has as Yet Been Made In Mason County, Many New Members Have Been Enrolled In Leslie H. Arthur Post.

This is national campaign week with the American Legion, an organization of young men who saw service during the late world war and all over the entire United States local posts and state organizations are endeavoring to enlist young men into the organization.

Up to the present time there has been no very special effort made in Mason county to obtain new members yet the officers of the Mason County Post have been very busy among their comrades and they have increased the local Post's membership considerably until the Mason county organization is now one of the strongest, in membership, in this section of the state.

Officers of the local post had hoped to have some of the state campaign men in Maysville some time this week and had expected to have a meeting of the soldiers but these campaign men are in great demand and it now appears that there will be no such meeting held. They expect to keep recruiting, however, until the Leslie H. Arthur Post is one of the strongest in the state of Kentucky. Those world war veterans who have not yet enlisted in this after-the-war organization which is comparable to the G. A. R. and the Spanish-American War Veterans', should get in touch with the post officers and enlist at once.

ABERDEEN BOY, NOW POPULAR PREACHER, IS HONORED

The Hillsboro (O.) Gazette tells very interestingly of an all day's celebration given this week in a woods near Hillsboro in honor of Rev. Bernard Grierson, who is leaving the pastorate of the Hillsboro Methodist church to complete his college education in a Tennessee college. Rev. Grierson was presented with a purse of $100 and the ministers and leading laymen of all denominations spoke very complimentary of him. Mr. Grierson is an Aberdeen boy and for a time he was a student in the Maysville High School. He has many friends in Maysville who will be very glad to hear of the success he is making in the election November 4.

The names of those who would be appointed by Mr. Morrow are: Dr. G. P. Sprague, Lexington; Edward W. Hines, Louisville; Dr. W. A. Ganfield, president of Centre College, Danville, Ky.; Fred M. Sackett, Louisville; Mrs. Lafon Riker, Harrodsburg; Clarence N. McElroy, Bowling Green, and Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, Louisville.

In a campaign speech made several days ago Mr. Morrow said he would name the persons who would be appointed head of the charitable and penal institutions of the state if he was elected Governor. His action at Albany Thursday came sooner than expected.

APPELLATE COURT TO DECIDE
CASE OF GENERAL INTEREST

Frankfort, Ky., September 19.—The Court of Appeals will decide at this term the question of whether money collected by the Commonwealth's attorney in excess of $4,000 in any year during his term of office can be applied to a year in which the amount collected is less than $4,000. This question will be determined in the case of John H. Gilliam against Robert L. Greene, state auditor, which was advanced and submitted to the court Thursday.

So famed have become Mason county's several Community Clubs, which are proving so valuable to the sections where they have been organized, that County Agent George Kirk has received a request from Mt. Olivet, the county seat of Robertson county, to assist them in the organization of such a club.

The fall rush on marriage licenses has begun and on Thursday County Clerk James Owens issued four licenses to couples who had been struck by Cupid's arrow. The County Clerk is now taking a good lead on Circuit Clerk Key, who has filed but one divorce action in the past month.

Manager George Duley, of the Maysville baseball club, may challenge the Augusta team to another game. The Bracken county crew has defeated the locals twice this season but Manager Duley still thinks his team is the better.

Having completed paving between the car rails in Market street, the contractors have now begun on West Second street. They will probably be able to proceed more rapidly on this street than on the more congested Market street.

Mr. Robert Holliday, of Long Beach, Cal., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Holliday and his sister, Mrs. Phillip Wheeler, of West Second street.

Two Post Office inspectors have been checking up the local office for the past couple of days and have found everything in first-class order.

Mrs. W. D. Huston, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dietrich, returned to her home in Covington today.

The turning point in many a business man's career is the moment when he and his banker come to a perfect understanding.

The officers of this bank desire to KNOW more business men in order that they may become better acquainted with their capacity and resources, and be in a better position to contribute the co-operation which the largest bank in this section is able to give.

With character, capacity and some capital, that other essential to success, CREDIT, is easily attained. We should like to have the opportunity to talk over your business problems with you. Perhaps we can help you.
